Admissions Year 2010-2011

Welcome to Concord Christian Academy!

We are thrilled you are considering CCA as one of your educational partners that will assist you in fostering your child(ren)'s academic and spiritual development. It is a privilege that we do not take lightly.

Modeling a young person into Christ-likeness requires the cooperation of family, church, and school. Learning occurs best when a community unites in love – a community in which faith and learning are interwoven, in which learning complements the school, church, and home, and in which time and talent are regarded as gifts from God to be used in His service.

As you seek to determine the “best fit” for your child(ren)'s education, we are delighted to share with you the mission we believe God is calling CCA to fulfill in New Hampshire's Capital Region. As you read through our application, we are confident that you will recognize a uniqueness to this school, and catch the depth and passion we have to raise up confident but humble, capable but merciful, knowledgeable but wise, Godly servant-leader men and women, spiritually and academically prepared to face the challenges of adult life.

There is a strong sense of vision and mission here as we press forward to cultivating a learning community that builds into the core values and nurturing fabric of CCA. Please give careful attention to the information provided in the application. We look forward to partnering with you and providing a rewarding and enriching educational experience.

CCA is delighted to be able to offer the Home Schooling community the opportunity to participate in the following:

- Elementary School – Sports, electives, and private music lessons
- Middle School – Sports, electives, private music lessons, and math and English classes
- High School – Sports, electives, private music lessons, core classes and dual credit classes

CCA does not oversee the paperwork for the state of NH nor does CCA conduct standardized testing for students not enrolled full time. Homeschoolers are welcome to attend chapel and spiritual emphasis week(s). Field trips, class parties and activities, diplomas, transcripts, and graduation ceremonies are not part of the home school offerings.

Mrs. McLaughlin and I are looking forward to working together with you as you select the best CCA offerings to meet your child's educational needs. Please direct inquiries to Kris McLaughlin at kmclaughlin@concordchristian.org or by phone at 228-8888, x102.

Sincerely,

ALICE PINARD

Dean of Admissions and Academic Development

CCA MISSION/VISION

CCA MISSION: Building Integrity & Modeling Service

Building Integrity means developing Christ-like character in the heart of a student, so that choices are made in private, just as they would be in public. Integrity means being others-focused rather than self-distracted. In many ways this begins within the home, and continues with the Staff/Faculty at CCA. By cooperating with families and the local church, we hope to create a consistent climate for children and youth to witness biblical living that is authentic, and makes a difference in one's life, and in the larger world.

Modeling Service naturally flows from integrity. How can we ignore the needs of the community of people around us? Children and youth have a power in their enthusiasm, their endless energy, to affect those who have lost hope, to help those who truly cannot help themselves, to faithfully steward the "much" we live with every day. Our partnering CCA Alliance organization was created to provide opportunities for adults to model service before students in a myriad of ways. They are watching us, and at CCA we take this very seriously.

CCA VISION: "And Jesus grew in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men." Luke 2:52

It is our vision that Jesus Christ's transforming grace and truth be (i) manifested in the lives of students by influencing every arena of life and (ii) evidenced by advancing integrity, mercy, competence, compassion, forgiveness, and beauty.

It is our desire that CCA be a school where...

- ...Christ is Lord, loved with heart, soul strength, and mind.
- ...others are served before self.
- ...Scripture is experienced as a feast of truth.
- ...prayer comes as naturally as breathing.
- ...beauty in the world is cherished.
- ...participation in the arts is an expression of joy in God's handwork.
- ...everyone contributes to work that sustains family, school, Church, and community.
- ...vigorous play and sound health habits are embraced by all.
- ...remorse and restitution are met with forgiveness and restoration.
- ...a zest for lifelong learning is cultivated.
- ...students, sound in spirit and capable in action, are prepared for further study and service in the life God has given to them.

CCA CORE VALUES

Christ	Maintaining humble submission to Jesus Christ, the risen Lord and Savior
Bible	Recognizing the ultimate authority for worldview and ministry
Prayer	Cultivating communication with God as a life skill and resource for ministry
Church	Partnering with the biblical base of ministry.
Unity	Seeking common ground with all believers in Jesus Christ
Love	Treating all people with grace and respect
Differences	Seeing each person as a special creation with God-given gifts and needs for unique pathways of development
Excellence	Operating with integrity, high academic achievement, and wise stewardship
Accountability	Preserving transparency, and faithfulness in all financial and ministry affairs
Generosity	Striving to make it economically possible for all to select CCA for their children
Understanding	Remembering that parents must decide what is best for each child's education

CCA COMMUNITY LIFE STATEMENT

- We believe that God's Word, the Bible, including the Old and New Testaments, are the ultimate guide for our values, attitudes and behaviors.
- We seek spiritual maturity by maintaining a personal devotional life, participating in community worship and prayer, being firmly planted in the life, ministry, and spiritual oversight of a local church, parish, synagogue or other assembly of believers.
- We seek to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace; to accept one another in love through humility, gentleness, and patience.
- We seek to encourage one another to mature in Christ-likeness by speaking the truth in love, in our classrooms, business affairs, social relationships, and in all other areas of our shared life.
- We encourage responsible relationships and unity within families.
- We seek to respect and encourage our uniqueness in Christ, which includes our diversity of denomination, race, culture, personality, development, experience, gifts and goals.
- We seek to become involved individually and corporately with the Church in ministering to spiritual and social needs within and beyond our own community.
- We renounce attitudes such as greed, jealousy, false pride, lust, bitterness, hostility, an unforgiving spirit and discrimination or prejudice such as that based on race, sex, appearance, emotional health, athletic ability and academic or socio-economic status.
- We renounce behaviors such as distortion of God's Word, deception, falsehood, malicious speech, drunkenness, drug abuse, stealing, cheating, and sexual immorality such as pornography, premarital sex, adultery and homosexual behavior.
- We acknowledge that every single person has engaged in attitudes and behaviors that fall short of God's standards and we rejoice in God's forgiveness and restoration. We affirm the mandates of God's Word to treat all human beings with love and respect whether or not they accept and endorse these values.
- We seek to follow, where interpersonal conflict arises or such shortfalls in attitudes and behaviors occur, a biblical process such as outlined in Matthew 18:15-20 for correction, forgiveness, restitution and reconciliation.
- We seek to practice an attitude of mutual submission according to the mind of Christ, recognizing that at times our personal rights and preferences must be put aside for the sake of others conscience and the good of the community.
- We seek to encourage the cultivation of such spiritual attitudes as love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.

CCA STATEMENT OF FAITH

Concord Christian Academy believes...

- in one God, Creator, and Lord of the Universe, the co-eternal Trinity: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
- that Jesus Christ, God's Son, was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, lived a sinless life, died a substitutionary atoning death on the cross, rose bodily from the dead and ascended to heaven where, as truly God and truly man, He is the only mediator between God and human beings.
- that the Bible is God's authoritative and inspired Word. It is without error in all its teachings, including creation, history, its own origins, and salvation. Christians must submit to its divine authority, both individually and corporately, in all matters of belief and conduct.
- that all people are lost sinners and cannot see the Kingdom of God except through the new birth. Justification is by grace through faith in Christ alone.
- in the necessity of the work of the Holy Spirit for each individual's new birth and growth to maturity, and for the Church's constant renewal in truth, wisdom, faith, holiness, love, power, and mission.
- in one holy, universal, and apostolic Church. Its calling is to worship God and witness concerning its Head, Jesus Christ, preaching the Gospel among all nations and demonstrating its commitment by compassionate service to the needs of human beings and by promoting righteousness and justice.
- that Jesus Christ will Himself physically return in glory to raise the dead and bring salvation and judgment to completion. God will fully manifest his Kingdom when He establishes a new heaven and new earth, in which He will be glorified forever and exclude all evil, suffering, and death.

All Parents of Applicants, please go to page 10 to sign wholehearted compliance with the following statement: I understand that all subjects taught at Concord Christian Academy will be based on the following foundational documents: CCA Mission, Vision, Core Values, Community Life Statement, and Statement of Faith. CHRISTIAN CONCILIATION & ARBITRATION AGREEMENT (All applicant families)

The Bible commands us to make every effort to live at peace and to resolve disputes with each other in private or within the Christian community in conformity with the biblical injunctions of I Corinthians 6:1-8, Matthew 5:23-24, and Matthew 18:15-20. Therefore, the parties agree that any claim or dispute arising out of or related to this Agreement or to any aspect of the school relationship, including any claim or statutory claims, shall be settled by biblically-based mediation.

If resolution of the dispute and reconciliation do not result from such efforts, the matter shall then be submitted to a panel of three arbitrators for binding arbitration. The selection of the arbitrators and the arbitration process shall be conducted in accordance with the Rules of Procedure for Christian Conciliation of the Institute for Christian Conciliation as printed in the Christian Conciliation Handbook. (403-256-1583)

The parties agree that these methods shall be the sole remedy for any controversy or claim arising out of the school relationship, or this agreement and expressly waive their right to file a lawsuit against one another in any civil court for such disputes, except to enforce a legally-binding arbitration decision.

Each party, regardless of the outcome of the matter, agrees to bear the cost of his/her/its own arbitrator and one-half of the fees and costs of the neutral arbitrator and any other arbitration expenses.
